

RF PATHWAYS W-WMS

Data Sheet

RF Pathways Wireless Warehouse Management (W-WMS) System software is a robust, fully featured warehouse and inventory management system designed to help manufacturers, distribution centers, food processors and other organizations with large complex warehousing and distribution requirements reduce costs, increase productivity, improve operational accuracy and improve efficiencies in single or multi-location environments.

RF Pathways W-WMS modular design makes it an ideal WMS solution for almost any organization with mobile computing and automated data collection and warehouse management requirements, whether they be a mid size 3PL or a large, global multi-location manufacturing and distribution environments.

RF Pathways Key Competitive Differentiators

Affordable

Reliable

Flexible

Scalable

Configurable to customers business

Fully integrated with back-end ERPs

RF Pathways Business and Operational Benefits

- reduce costs and improve warehouse/inventory productivity – overall labour cost reduction
- reduce existing data entry - and errors
- increase accuracy of previously manual transactions
- “real-time” information available at the point of application
- increase in inventory accuracy
- validate more transactions instantaneously
- better supply chain decisions
- improved speed and accuracy to customer queries and requirements

STRATEGIC PARTNERS

Microsoft Business Solutions

